Our Kids Count | Child Care Subsidies

Family Resource Centres

Special Needs

The DSB assumed responsibility for the planning and managing of the delivery of child care services on January 1, 2000. This includes funding for child care subsidies, special needs services, family resource centres and child care support for Ontario Works participants. Child Care refers to programs licensed by the Ministry of Education and can be centre based or available in a licensed private home setting.

Who Qualifies for a child care subsidy?

Child care subsidies are available for parents who are residents in our jurisdiction and qualify (as determined by an income test); and

- are working or engaged in an employment or training activity; or
- Parents of children with a demonstrated special need (as identified by a third party)

*Includes parents who are receiving financial assistance such as Ontario Works or Ontario Disability Support Program.

How Do I apply?

Contact the Manitoulin-Sudbury DSB or begin the application process online at www.msdsb.net. Once your application has been processed you will be contacted for an appointment. During your appointment the following forms will be completed:

- Income Test - Form 1
- Agreement between the parent and the DSB

Best Start Hubs

These programs, funded through the DSB, provide early learning opportunities for Children such as playgroups. They also provide parent information and workshops, and a toy-lending library.

Children with Special Needs

The DSB provides funding for both Special Needs workers and specialized toys and equipment to encourage the integration of children with special needs into licensed child care settings with their peers. These services are available at no additional cost to the parents.

Our Kids Count

Funded by the Social Assistance Restructuring Initiative - provides Recreation Bursaries; informal child care subsidies in unlicensed areas; and health related items for low income families.
